

ODO ALUMAPEBI

Brief:

Odo Alumapebi is a small town in Odogbolu Local Government Ogun State, Nigeria. The town economy is primarily driven by agriculture with crops like cassava, maize and major produce. Some residents also engage in small scale trading and craftsmanship.

The town has many infrastructure including a secondary school, few shops and markets. It has access to electricity and a fairly good road. The town has a rich cultural heritage and comprises of Christian, muslim and traditionalists.

Vision:

To make Odo Alumapebi a city when special recognition is given to peace building. A place where the rights of the residents are respected, embrace the listening level of the residence so as to be able to contribute meaningfully to the economic, social and political development of the city.

Mission:

To establish and develop a conducive atmosphere for people in the city to contribute to the growth of the city thus making the city a peace-building city worthy of emulation by other surrounding cities.

Goal:

To have a city where peace building activities are given priority.