

®

INTERNATIONAL
CITIES OF PEACE

Sketchbook

Case Studies in Courage

Cities of Peace Action Plans

The leaders of International Cities of Peace understand the needs of their communities and are finding creative, high-impact solutions to achieve safety, prosperity, and quality of life, the consensus values of peace.

1. Ashland, Oregon, U.S.A.
2. Bamenda, Cameroon
3. Bujumbura, Burundi
4. Fizi, D.R. Congo
5. Herat, Afghanistan
6. Kumara, New Zealand
7. Nanjing, China
8. Nateete, Uganda
9. Rockford, Illinois, U.S.A.
10. Zihuatanejo, Mexico

Ashland, Oregon, U.S.A.

Grassroots/Government Partnership

Photo: The Ashland Culture of Peace Commission (ACPC), the first such government agency, was launched on International Day of Peace in 2015.

Bamenda, Cameroon: City of Peace

Strategic Development Goals – Clean water

Photo: Peacemaker Ngo Itsnalb and his colleagues dig wells and provide clean drinking water to the poor regions of Cameroon.

Bujumbura, Burundi: City of Peace

City-to-City Program

Photo: The “Five Goats to Alleviate Poverty” business plan, at the urging of International Cities of Peace, provides a sustainable lifestyle for women victims of war.

Fizi, D.R. Congo: City of Peace

Recommendations on Funding -- Education

Photo: Mabwe Lucien is on the Board of Cities of Peace, Inc. Here he dedicates a well in preparation for building a school.

Herat, Afghanistan: City of Peace

Educating girls; Uplifting Education Methodology

Photo: A testament of courage, Malika Hissaini and Fatima Heidari focus on quality education for girls in the second largest city of Afghanistan.

Kumara, New Zealand: City of Peace

Free Wellness Services in Remote Areas

Photo: A new Wellness Clinic has been opened as a result of the citizens of Kumara establishing their community as a City of Peace.

Nanjing, China: City of Peace

Cultural Healing; Peace Studies in China

Photo: Nanjing University is the first university to conduct research of peace studies in China. It is the first Institute for Peace Studies among all universities in China.

Nateete, Uganda: City of Peace

Community Policing; Power of the Network

Photo: Ali Tebandeke awarded certificates to outstanding police officers and clergyman of the Nateete community. As a leader of ICP, he was asked by authorities in Kampala, the capital, to make suggestions on safety issues.

Rockford, Illinois, U.S.A.: City of Peace

Partnership for Peace: Rotary Clubs

Photo: One of the many Cities of Peace that was initiated by the local Rotary Club, the Rock River Valley Peace Coalition is a grassroots organization comprised of community members and other civic organizations.

Zihuatanejo, Mexico: City of Peace

A community UNITED against violence

Photo: The entire City commemorated the recertification of City of Peace status with a community-wide celebration, including marches, workshops, and speeches for peace.

Imagine 1000 Case Studies of Practical peace-building in every nation.

An extraordinary opportunity!

www.internationalcitiesofpeace.org/

Imagine 1000 Case Studies of Practical peace-building in every nation.

An extraordinary opportunity!

Please donate.

International Cities of Peace
5818 Wilmington Pike #234
Dayton, OH 45459 U.S.A.

Website: <http://www.internationalcitiesofpeace.org/>

Email: :info@internationalcitiesofpeace.org

Executive Director: J. Fred Arment arment@fredarment.com

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/internationalcitiesofpeace/>

® International Cities of Peace is a registered trademark of Cities of Peace, Inc.

